

36 years have I devoted my life to the Bible. Learning its principles of integrity and interpretation. I have seen many leaders and laymen in the Seventh Day Adventist Church grow further from those principles than where they began. I n love I have tried to teach these principles (else why would I) and have run into resistance in word as: Grace or Ignorance, God knows my heart and worse with worse treatment or behavior. Never with equality, brotherly love, compassion for the disagreeable duty I was performing. Christians have grown indifferent to Mercy, compassion, everything that Charity means. This Danger to which we now find ourselves is weaponing the Gospel (i.e, OT ceremonial Law) for their own benefit against the Law of Ten Commandments, Or The Faith of Jesus Against the Ten Commandments of God, or Faith Against Works, Righteousness, Holiness. All of my calls to principle have Fallon on deaf ears.

Many generational SDA's complain the Bible or EG White has been used as a Hammer by their parents, teachers or Ministers. Now in control of the church they acting like Hophni and Phineas are following the steps of the French Revolution by dismantling doctrines that God has ordained. Because of their past experiences, embarrassed by Walter Martin's work so attacking those who in their enthusiasm of light would now accept it, thus preventing them from learning truth. Because they "gave it up years ago" forbidding others to quiet their own conscience. These have become as described in Matthew 23. And are working today as the Jews did against Paul. The High-Handed Power that has been developed, as though position has made men gods, makes me afraid, and ought to cause fear. It is a curse wherever and by whomsoever it is exercised. This lording it over God's heritage will create such a disgust of man's jurisdiction that a state of insubordination will result. The people are learning that men in high positions of responsibility cannot be trusted to mold and fashion other men's minds and characters. The result will be a loss of confidence even in the management of faithful men. But the Lord will raise up laborers who realize their own nothingness without special help from God. SpTA09 18.1

Is Church about being loyal to God?

Many who know not what spirit they are of are ready to reach out their hands to grasp and gather in that which they have not earned. Many are under condemnation because of the grave sin of selfishness which is leavening the institution. One confederates with another. "You stand by me, and I will stand by you," they say to each other. Thus they lead others into false paths, bringing in the strange fire that God has positively forbidden to be used in His work. With some, serving the Lord has but little place. They think they have no time to pray. 7LtMs, Ms 23, 1891, par. 6

Note: SDA's principles for church authority are not based on scripture nor are they able to understand it for Dead Languages. Their conspiracies of jesuits are only to cover their own subversive work. They will lie, murder, steal, false complaints to police, violate the civil rights of others preaching the truth to silence their own convections. Mark the work of Jones and Waggoner, the revisions of SDA Pioneers books. The changes of doctrine to imitate 1st day churches. Denying the Sanctuary the very foundation of Truth. 1Peter 2:16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

Gal. 5:13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. 14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

1Peter 2:13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; 14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. 15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: 16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

Luke 11:52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

Gal. 5:7 Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you. 9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. 10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

The people of God living near the close of time should learn a lesson from this experience of Paul's. We should not be disheartened because those who have no love for truth refuse to be convinced by the clearest evidence. We need not flatter ourselves that the formal and world-loving churches of this age are more ready to receive the teachings of God's word than were those of ages past. Paul's worst enemies were among the Jews, who made the highest claims to godliness. It was to this class that Christ said, "Ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God." The most bitter opposers of truth today are found among those who profess to be its defenders. LP 278.3

God has made his people the depositaries of his law. They must uphold the claims of that down-trodden law against the opposition of ministers of the gospel, against men of learning, position, and authority. The evidence of its binding claims cannot be overthrown; yet its enemies will come again and again to the battle, urging the same arguments, every time refuted, and as often renewed. LP 279.1

"In these texts, the day upon which God rested, and which He subsequently blessed and sanctified, is plainly stated to be the seventh day. And from that seventh day on which Jehovah rested, all future seventh days have in them the blessing and the sanctification. The use of the word seal directs the mind to a legal document. When a ruler's seal is attached to a legal paper, that seal contains the name of the one in authority, his right to rule, and the territory over which he rules. These features are all made prominent in the seal contained in the law of God. To-day the seal is usually placed, either at the beginning, or at the close of the decree or law; but in the divine law it is placed in the center, that nothing may be taken from, or added thereto. The fourth commandment reads: "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work.... For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it." Herein lie the three specifications of a seal: first, the name,—the Lord thy God, Jehovah; second, the authority,—Creator; third, the extent of territory,—the heavens and earth. Take away this command from the decalogue, and it would contain no seal. God's right to rule rests in the fourth commandment, and the seal will be placed in the foreheads of those who thus know God. The knowledge of the creative and the redeeming power of God, is revealed by Christ in the fourth commandment of the decalogue.” —1905 SNH, SSP 135.1

On the other hand, faith in Jesus Christ, while refusing obedience to the law of the Father is presumption. An effort to obtain friendship with the Son, while living in rebellion against the Father, is Heaven-daring. No greater insult can be offered to either the Father or the Son. What! separate the Father and the Son, by trampling on the authority of the one, and making a friend of the other? “I and my Father are one.” The Jew insults the Father, in his rejection of the Son; and the Christian flings in the face of the Heaven equal insult, in all his acts of worship in which he vainly thinks to make Jesus his friend while, with light upon the subject, he breaks the commandments of God. LAGO 11.3

Note: SDA's are Isolating the law from the Gospel, by which destroys the 3rd Angels message “Commandments of God and the faith of Jesus,” denies the Father and His law and renders the Gospel of Jesus Christ POWERLESS. “In rejecting the truth, men reject its Author. . . It is as easy to make an idol of false doctrines and theories as to fashion an idol of wood or stone. . .” GC 583.1 see LP 324.2

The law and the gospel go hand in hand. The one is the complement of the other. The law without faith in the gospel of Christ cannot save the transgressor of law. The gospel without the law is inefficient and powerless. The law and the gospel are a perfect whole. The Lord Jesus laid the foundation of the building, and He lays "the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it." Zech. 4:7. He is the Author and Finisher of our faith, the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. The two blended--the gospel of Christ and the law of God--produce the love and faith unfeigned. {1888 Materials. EGW. Chap. 100 - Diary Entries. 783.2}

SDA pastors teach you can not keep the 10 Commandments and by extension or thereby you can't be holy, righteous, or perfect, Why do they teach this? SDA pastors by falsely claiming you can't keep the Ten Commandments are destroying the Seventh Day Adventist Church, the Law and the Gospel, the Commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus. By denying the Commandments can be kept breaks the covenant bond between God and Man.

There is to be in the [Seventh-day Adventist] churches a wonderful manifestation of the power of God, but it will not move upon those who have not humbled themselves before the Lord, and opened the door of the heart by confession and repentance. In the manifestation of that power which lightens the earth with the glory of God, they will see only something which in their blindness they think dangerous, something which will arouse their fears, and they will brace themselves to resist it. The world has a right to watch Seventh-day Adventists. They mark any deviation from Bible principle, and then they take courage. They say, “These people are no better than ourselves. I think that in the long run I shall come out as well as Seventh-day Adventists.” They watch, they talk, and when professed believers depart from righteousness and seek not first the kingdom of God, the world does not forget this inconsistency. They point to the various signs of the great center of the work, and say, “Look ye, they are a set of sharpers.” What pleasing satisfaction it has been to them. They want just such encouragement as these unsanctified, professional men give them. 14LtMs, Ms 26, 1899, par. 27

Will Modern Israel suffer the same fate for the same reasons.

Jer. 16:3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place” (Jerusalem) “, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land; 4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. 5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies. 6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them: 7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. 8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. 9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.
