

The result of trying to impel men to Love their neighbor as themselves documented in paint. Leads them to work to break up your marriage, your associations, family, ability to earn an income, your reputation, influence, even end your life. And by suffering long or severity, mistakenly results in seeking solace in vice or even suicide. But this message is the same and the story is the same wether spoken or in acts of kindness or illustrated in art.

The beauties of this earth should generate a response of love to fellow men. Ecc. 5:9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field. Ragged men in ragged clothes? James 2:15-17. "Tried to set them free" from the guilt of sin towards their fellow men to obey God and love their fellow men. Note the scenes of churches not having the light at 3:17 through the end. "Eyes that watch the world and can't forget." Rev. 20:4-6.
